Report or Overall Summary:

The 76th NCC Raising Day Celebration was a momentous occasion, marked by various events that showcased the discipline, unity, and patriotism of the NCC cadets. The event was organized for all the NCC cadets of St. Francis Institution. The participants of the event were around 250 Cadets from the Army and Air Wings including 4 ANOs. The Chief Guest of the event was Group Captain Rajesh Chandra Commanding Officer 2 Kar Air SQN NCC. The celebration commenced with an oath-taking ceremony, where cadets pledged to uphold the values of the NCC. This was followed by a rank distribution ceremony, where deserving cadets were promoted to various ranks in recognition of their hard work and dedication.

The event also featured a certificate distribution ceremony, where holders of A, B, and C certificates were awarded for completing their exams. The chief guest, Group Captain Rajesh Chandra, addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of hard work, discipline, and choosing the right career. His inspiring words motivated the cadets to strive for excellence. The first edition of the 'NCC YAATRA' yearly magazine, launched by the St. Francis Degree College NCC Unit, was unveiled by all the dignitaries, commemorating the remarkable journey and achievements of NCC cadets both within and outside the institution.

The celebration concluded with a spectacular dance performance by the NCC cadets, showcasing their talent and enthusiasm. The event was a grand success, fostering a sense of camaraderie and esprit de corps among the cadets.
