

Report on Inter-Collegiate Bible-Centric Theme Art Competition

Date: 25th September 2020

Mode: Online

Targeted Participants: Students from various colleges

Number of Participants: 14

1. Introduction

An Inter-Collegiate Bible-Centric Theme Art Competition was successfully organized on 25th September 2020. The competition aimed to promote artistic expression through biblical themes, encouraging students to reflect on their faith and spirituality through creative artwork.

This online event was open to all students and witnessed active participation from 14 students representing various institutions, including:

- JSS Academy of Technical Education
- Sona College of Arts & Sciences
- Jyothi Nivas College
- Mount Carmel College
- St. Francis College

2. Objectives of the Competition

- To provide a platform for students to express their faith and spirituality through art.
- To encourage creativity and artistic interpretation of Bible-centric themes.
- To promote inter-collegiate engagement and knowledge sharing among students from different institutions.

3. Competition Details

- Event Format: Individual Online Drawing Competition
- Theme: Bible-Centric
- Judging Criteria: Creativity, artistic skill, relevance to the theme, and overall presentation.

4. Winners of the Competition

1st Prize

- Sudeer V (BCA - B) – St. Francis College

2nd Prize

- Steph Varghese (BSC MSE) – St. Francis College

3rd Prize (Joint Winners)

- Swetha Suresh (BCOM) – Sona College of Arts & Sciences
- Sravani M (BCOM CA) – St. Francis College

5. Outcome of the Competition

- Encouraged students to interpret and reflect on biblical teachings through artistic expression.
- Strengthened inter-collegiate participation and engagement in faith-based competitions.
- Provided a creative platform for students to showcase their artistic talents and spiritual understanding.

6. Conclusion

The Inter-Collegiate Bible-Centric Theme Art Competition was a successful and enriching event, bringing together students from different institutions to celebrate faith and creativity through art.

The diverse participation and high-quality submissions made the competition a remarkable experience for both the participants and organizers.

The event reinforced the importance of biblical themes in art and encouraged students to continue exploring their spirituality through creative endeavors.

