

REPORT ON EUPHORIA

- Name of the event: Euphoria
- Date: 24th October 2024 & 25th October 2024
- Time: 12:40PM – 2:00PM
- Venue: 4th and 6th Floor Seminar Halls
- No. of Participants: 20
- Event Coordinator: Ms. Maria Glory Antony and Ms. Irene Ann George

Objective: The two-day competitive event Euphoria, organized by AICUF, aimed to provide a vibrant platform for students to showcase their talents, skills, and creativity across various competitions. The event sought to foster healthy competition, teamwork, and leadership among participants, encouraging them to push their limits and develop a spirit of sportsmanship. It also aimed to enhance student engagement beyond academics by offering opportunities for self-expression, collaboration, and cross-disciplinary learning.

Learning Outcome: Euphoria successfully engaged a good number of students in a range of competitive activities, generating enthusiasm and camaraderie among participants. It enhanced teamwork and coordination, as students participated in both individual and group events, learning to strategize and collaborate effectively.

Report or Overall Summary:

Collage Making Competition (24-10-24): The Competition was held to encourage students creativity and teamwork. Participants were tasked with creating visually compelling collages based on a given theme, using a variety of materials to convey their ideas effectively. Teams worked enthusiastically, blending art and thought to produce meaningful pieces within the stipulated time. The event saw active participation from various departments, and the final collages were judged based on creativity, relevance to the theme, and presentation. The competition provided a platform for students to showcase their artistic skills while fostering collaboration and innovation. The winners were announced at the end of the event, and their work was displayed prominently, inspiring others with their creativity. The collage-making activity not only added a colorful dimension to Euphoria but also reflected the event's spirit of teamwork, expression, and community engagement.

Bible Quiz Competition (24-10-24): The competition was held to encourage students spirituality, to learn and know more about the word of God with the teamwork. participants were tasked with quick quiz and picture puzzle on a given time. Teams answered enthusiastically, the event saw active participants from various departments and the final was judged by the timing and number of correct answers. The competition provided a platform for students to showcase their spiritually and knowledge in the word of God. The winners were announced at the end of the event. Overall the Bible quiz competition not only added with their knowledge to Euphoria but also reflected the event's spirit of teamwork.

Short Film making Competition (25-10-24): The competition was held to encourage students to showcase their creativity under the theme "Creating a Just Society." Seven teams participated, each presenting unique films that explored various aspects of social justice, equality, and community engagement. The films were screened in front of an audience, and a panel of judges evaluated them based on creativity and relevance to the theme. Awards were given for categories such as Best Film and Audience Choice, fostering a spirit of collaboration and innovation among the participants. The event successfully sparked important conversations about social issues and highlighted the students talents.

Gospel Singing Competition (25-10-24): The competition was held for students to come and showcase their singing skills and also to break their stage barrier. We had students from different departments, actively participating in the event. Participants were judged based on their stage presence, pitch accuracy, timing, vocal tone and vocal quality. Our judges for the event were Ms. Nikitha Sunny and Ms. Sona Shaji. The judges were very much pleased and also cooperatively judged based on the criteria provided. They were also mesmerized by the confidence of the participants and shared their views in the end. The succession of this event provided the participants to courageously participate in the upcoming events.

CO-ORDINATOR

PRINCIPAL

DIRECTOR