

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE

Koramangala, Bangalore, India

Affiliated to Bengaluru City University, Approved By AICTE

CIVIL DEFENCE

10 Days of manekshaw parade report

INTRODUCTION: 76th republic day parade was held on January 26, 2024, at manekshaw parade, Bangalore, to commemorate the adoption of the constitution of India. The event showcased India's rich cultural heritage, military prowess, and national unity. The parade was the culmination of 10 days of intense practice sessions by the participants.

PRACTICE SESSIONS:

- Day 1-2: Rehearsal began with contingents from the India Armed Forces, Navy, Air force, Poice, NCC,NSS, Civil defence and school childrens practicing their marching skills.
- Day 3-4: Cultural tableaux from various states started rehearsing their performance and we also had ours marching practice for republic day.
- Day 5-6: The indian army particed there bike stunt, and the Indian Navy rehearsed their marching contingent. ● Day 7-8: school children practiced their folks dances and patriotic songs and their marching practice.
- Day 9-10: Final dress rehearsals were held, with all participants practicing together.

PARADE HIGHLIGHTS:

- The parade began with the unfurling of the national flag by the Thawar Chand Gehlot, governor of Karnataka, followed by 21-gun salute .
- The civil defence and the other contingents particpateed their marching.
- The Indian armed forces showcased their latest military hardware and army performance.
- Cultural tableaux from various states displayed their unique traditions and customs. ● School childrens performed folks dances and sang patriotic songs.
- The parade concluded with a bike stunt and army bomb performance.

CONCLUSION:

The 76th republic day parade was a grand success, showcasing India's diversity, military strength, and national pride. The 10 days of practice leading up to the event ensured a flawless execution, making it a fitting tribute to the country's founding fathers and a celebration of its sovereignty.